Important notes

1. When your new financial adviser has been appointed, we will write to your previous financial adviser to advise that they have been removed and no longer have authority to receive information regarding your policy.
2. Subject to any existing agreements, trail commission may be transferable to your new financial adviser, if applicable.
3. Any existing financial services charge will automatically be cancelled upon the appointment of a new financial adviser. If you wish a financial services charge to be paid to your new financial adviser, please complete the relevant financial services charge form.
